◦ The “Readiness” component refers to how these work schedules are aimed at managing personnel fatigue, ensuring personnel remain alert and are able to perform their duties safely and effectively over a specified duration. It also enables supervisors to ensure that their staff have sufficient time for rest and various responsibilities, which is vital for overall performance and safety.

The image shows a configuration interface for work schedule readiness. At the top, there is a 'Run' button. Below it, there are several input fields: 'Organization' (set to 'ALPHA COMPANY'), 'Work Schedule' (set to 'LIMITED AREA (NAVY) 4HR'), 'Start Date' (set to '01-Jan-2025'), 'End Date' (set to '20-Oct-2025'), 'Branch' (set to 'USN'), and 'Rank/ Rate' (set to 'MA2').
